

our customers say

Sometimes you can't get to a phone. When we've pushed the NevaAlone Companion Services button, assistance was here in a few minutes.

Barry Johnson, Wellington

My doctor sees NevaAlone Companion Services as a security blanket for me.

Elanor Smith, Tauranga

Although I didn't think I needed it, my daughter-in-law insisted. She even offered to pay for it. Once I knew how much it meant to them that I have this security, I got it and I'm very happy.

Jocelyn Lelo, Auckland

On average a third of people aged 65 and older will fall at least once this year. -ACC
